

'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat'

As per CBSE circular in 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat' campaign an innovative step is taken to enhance understanding and bonding between the states and Union territories.

Two different states have been paired to promote cultural exchanges. Delhi has been paired with Sikkim.

The objective of this program is to showcase the rich culture and heritage, food, handicrafts and customs of the states and union territories of the country, to encourage the coordination between the people of different states by bridging the cultural differences. It will become an important factor in the strengthening and unity of the nation. At the same time, this will help in preventing internal conflicts. The campaign will also help to identify and highlight various cultures and traditions of the country.

Students of class 9 and 10 made power point presentation on the topic “compare and contrast of cultures: Delhi and Sikkim”.

Wherein students with full enthusiasm prepared very informative and well presented slides showing diversity of paired state Sikkim with Delhi.

The image shows a screenshot of a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation and a Zoom meeting interface. The PowerPoint slide is titled "DELHI" and features a photograph of a group of people in traditional Sikkimese attire. The text on the slide reads: "You will find Sikkim's Kamas with extraordinary items and diverse work. Categories of items and customs also come into play. Other traditional dresses worn by women in Delhi include Ghagra Cholis and Saris. However, when it generally referred to students, Men in Delhi wear Shwartraj in traditional costumes." The Zoom meeting interface shows a grid of participants, including a student named YATI XE, a student named ARJUN GAUR, and a student named Chinmay Tripath X-E. The meeting title is "Meeting in 'General'" and the time is 14:20. The system tray at the bottom shows the date and time as 12:24 PM on 10/26/2020.
